RAIN AGAIN INTERFERS

Retards the Progress of the Fair and Cuts the Crowd of the Fourth Day.

SEVERAL POSTPONEMENTS.

Rings Taken Up Today Which
With Regular Program Will Conclude Fair Week.

Rain, which began falling about one o'clock yesterday afternoon, retarded the progress of the Bourbon Fair to some extent marring the pleasure of a brilliant day, and sent the large crowd which had assembled in the early forenoon, skurrying to shelter to avoid the heavy deluge.

The day dawned brightly and gave every indication of remaining so, but about noon heavy clouds began to gather, and an hour later broke in all their fury, which practically brought an end to the exhibitions of the day, only a few rings being exhibited afterwards, all of the most important events being deferred until today, when with the completion of the postponements of yesterday and the program of today the fair will come to a close.

A good sized crowd took advantage of the promising weather and journeyed to the grounds yesterday morning, but the soaking rain drove a large part of them back to town shortly afterwards. After the rain had ceased to fall, many ventured back to the grounds, where the exhibition closed at four o'clock.

One ring postponed from Thursday afternoon came up first yesterday morning, and was one of the principal events of the day. It was the ring for the best mare or gelding any age, and the premium was divided into three parts. The first was won by Shropshire & Matlack's Jack Straw, the second by Allie Jones' Cornelia K, while Col. Young, Collins & Redmon's entry won the third.

The class for suckling mule colts was another important ring and brought out a number of entries. S.
S. Ralls won the first and second premium while Bruce Feedback was awarded the third.

The rain precluded the exhibitions, leaving twelve over for today, the most important of which will be the harness sweepstakes, sweepstakes for saddle horses, the pony race and the fancy turnout. These will be taken up the first thing this morning, weather permitting.

Michael's prize military band will render the following musical program at the fair today and by special request Miss Hamman, the vocal soloist will sing "My Old Kentucky Home."

March—Banner of the World.
Some Rag—That Tired Feeling.
Waltz—Dreams.

Lexington Thursday afternoon by Justice Abner Oldham.

Injures Knee.

Mr. Ed Case, of North Middletown, fell from the merry-go-round at the fair Thursday, seriously injured his knee and receiving other painful bruises.

Chas. Hall Dies of Mysterious Disease.

Mr. Chas. Hall, one of the best known and most prosperous citizens of Scott county, died at his home in Georgetown Friday morning after an illness of over three months, during which time many physicians were unable to diagnose the case.

Mr. Hall was 45 years of age and a member of a pioneer family of Scott county. He was a brother of Mr. Jos.
M. Hall, of this city, who was called to Georgetown Wednesday on account of his serious illness and was at his bedside when the end came.

Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Maggie Funk, of Fayette county, and brother, Mr. Jos. M. Hall, of Paris, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Gaines and Mrs. A. L.
Ferguson, both of Georgetown.

Mr. Hall held a number of prominent positions at the time of his death being the secretary of the Scott County Board of Control of the Burley Tobacco Society.

The funeral services will be held from his late residence in Georgetown tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock and the body will be laid to rest in the Georgetown cemetery.

ing Dave and Grover Butler were fin-

HUSTLERS AGAIN BEATEN

Paris Win Second of Series in Ten Rounds by the Score of Six to Three.

HEAVY HITTING A FACTOR.

Paris Batters Lay On Slants of Two Winchester Hurlers
Game Here Today

In a contest which went ten innings Paris won the second game of the championship series from Winchester yesterday afternoon by a score of 6 to 3. The exhibition was full of thrills from the opening session until the tenth when the heavy hitting Bourbon-ites fell on the slants of Platzer, and when the smoke of the excessive bombardment had cleared away three runs had crossed the rubber and the contest ended with Paris that many to the good.

The locals batted two of the Hustler pitchers hard. Saunders, the little side wheeler, went in and pitched a splendid game until the eighth keeping his hits well scattered and allowing but one run. Then the McKernan men got to him and before he could be taken from the mound the score had been tied. Platzer was substituted and retired the side. The latter heavier went well until the tenth when a fussilade of safeties relieved the suspense.

Schenberg overcame the "hoodoo" thirteen and by winning the game equalled the record of the Blue Grass League established by Jimmie Poole last year, when he won as many games for Paris in a row.

While he was as wild as a March hare, Schenberg improved as the game progressed. Two of the runs were the result of an error and a pass, only one of the Hustlers' tallies being of the clean cut fashion.

McKernan played a star game in the field for Paris, pulling off two sensational catches, each of which looked good for a safe drive. Mayer, Barnett, Maxwell and Chapman hit the ball hard and at the most opportune times.

The Hustlers started out by scoring one run in the first when Walsh hit safely, took second on Reed's sacrifice and went to third on Olson's out, scoring when Harrell let Coleman's grounder get past him. Olson walked in the fourth, Coleman singled to center. A double steal was pulled off and on Goosetree's out Olson counted.

In the second frame Paris counted one. Barnett doubled to right and Maxwell popped to Goosetree. Lake fumbled Kuhlman's grounder, Barnett scoring. Chapman was hit and Scheneberg flied to Brown. Harrell flied to Coleman.

The Hustlers counted their last run in the sixth and in the eighth the locals tied the score. Mayer beat out a slow one to Walsh. Goodman forced Mayer, Barnett doubled to right scoring Goodman. Maxwell singled to left sending Barnett across the rubber.
Saunders retired and Platzer, who went in forced Kuhlman and Chapman to hit into outs.

The game was clinched in the tenth.
Mayer led off with a double to right and Goodman sacrificed. Barnett singled, scoring Mayer. Maxwell singled to left. Kuhlman forced Maxwell and Chapman delivered a two bagger which sent Barnett and Kuhlman home. Scheneberg tightened up in the final round, fanning Walsh and Reed and forcing Olson to pop an easy one to Kuhlman.

The Paris and Winchester teams will meet on the local grounds this afternoon for the third game of the series, when it is expected one of the largest crowds of the season will be in attendance, if the condition of the grounds will permit a game.

Practically all of the box seats in the stands have been sold and a large number of these have been engaged by out-of-town people. A large delegation will be here from both Maysville and Lexington.

A large delegation from both Maysville and Lexington will be here.

McKernan will probably work Hauser in the game this afternoon while Coleman may send Brown in to oppose the locals. The game will be called at 3:15. The fourth game of the series will be played in this city Sunday afternoon. Score of the game yesterday:

Paris.....0 1 0 0 0 0 2 0 3—6 Winchester.....1 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0—3 Batteries—Paris, Scheneberg and Mayer; Winchester, Saunders, Platzer and Meek. Hits—Paris 12, Winchester

BEATTIE IS CONVICTED

The jury in the case of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., charged with the murder of his young wife yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of guilty. Beattie now faces the electric chair. The trial which has been in progress for more than a week has attracted attention throughout the United States.
An appeal will be taken.

Claiming Credit for O'Rear's Decisions.

Judge O'Rear's organ, the Louisville Herald, which is owned by a Chicago Republican who doesn't even vote in Kentucky, published an article recently giving Judge O'Rear credit for the decision in the Eastern Kentucky land case which it says made John C. C. Mayo rich. Of course, everybody but the subsidized and foreign owned Herald knows that Mr. Mayo made his fortune in Eastern Kentucky long before the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the United States passed upon the land titles in Eastern Kentucky.

But Mr. Mayo is not a candidate for Governor or for any other office, but he reserves the right as a Democrat to support the Democratic ticket, and he is doing so in his usual earnest and vigorous fashion.

The Herald would like the voters of Eastern Kentucky to believe that this decision was rendered solely by Judge O'Rear, but it happened that there were six other judges on the bench, all of them Democrats, and that all of them took the same view of this question that Judge O'Rear did, and it was the unanimous opinion of this Court, made up of six Democrats and one republican, which was approved by the United States Supreme Court.

If Mr. Mayo benefited by that decision, then all other land owners in Eastern Kentucky were also benefited, but it cannot be truthfully said that Judge O'Rear made Mr. Mayo or any of these property owners rich, and if his decision did increase the value of their holdings, they were entitled to it.

Drouth Raises Price of Corn.

A dispatch from Danville says: "On account of the drouth which lasted from first of May until ten days ago, the corn crop was cut short more than one half and the high price record of the past decade has been established. Buyers are unable to secure corn at $4 per barrel in the field. A number of sales of old corn have been reported at $5 per barrel."

Greatest Trotter in the World.

Uhlan, generally considered the greatest trotter that the world ever saw is to make three appearances at Lexington during the great Kentucky trots October 3 to 14. He will endeavor to beat the record of 1:58 1/2 to sulky, 2:00 flat to wagon, the former record being held by him and the latter being held jointly by him and Lou Dillon also the half mile record to wagon of :56 1/4 seconds another record to the credit of the wonderful son of Bingen. His performances this year have been marvelous for besides the wagon records above mentioned he also set a new record for trotters over a half mile track at Goshen, N. Y., reducing his own former mark of 2:05 1/4 made last year. With favorable conditions at Lexington he has a good chance of trotting a mile well under the present mark of 1:58 1/2 without windshield.

Bourbon County Should Send Band.

That the Democratic Barbecue to be held in the neighborhood of Carlisle on September 14 will be the biggest thing ever pulled off in this section of the state is evidenced by the unusual amount of interest and the activity of the leading Democrats of the Blue Grass section in getting up the affair. Every county in this section will send a large delegation of Democrats to be present at the rally which will be featured by the speeches of several orators of nation-wide reputation. A large number are expected from more distant sections of the state, and thousands will be present on that occasion.

Practically all of the counties surrounding Nicholas will send their delegations in a body and headed by brass bands. The Paris band has been engaged by the committee as one of six furnished by that body. Now it is up to Bourbon county to contribute her share towards making this barbecue one of great success.

The Democrats of Bourbon have been appealed to to contribute to a fund which will be used to defray the expense of engaging a band to head the Bourbon delegation. Col. N. H. Rankin, of Carlisle, was in Paris yesterday, and had a large number of men with him advertising the barbecue. Col. Rankin is very enthusiastic over the coming event and was very active yesterday in securing subscriptions from the Bourbon Democrats for this purpose and while meeting with some success a sufficient fund has not been realized. Let the Bourbon county Democrats come forward and send a delegation to the barbecue in the finest style.

Special Music at the Fair.

Through the Daily News Bandmaster Geo. Michaels whose splendid concert band has delighted the crowds at the Bourbon Fair this week, series to extend thanks for the many evidences of appreciation of the band's work shown by the patrons. Miss Hamman, the soloist, also added her testimony saying that she never sang to more appreciative auditors.

During the heavy rain Friday afternoon the band and Miss Hamman both worked under discouraging conditions, with the rain pelting on them and having to contend with the noise of the crowded amphitheatre. But they graciously and courteously accepted the situation and rendered the selections in their accustomed perfection, without a hitch. Mr. Michaels declares the audiences of the week at the Bourbon Fair to have been the most considerate of any to which his band had played lately and hopes through the Daily News to acquaint everyone with the personal thanks of Miss Hamman, the band and himself.
At the fair this afternoon Miss Hamman will by special request sing "Old Kentucky Home" accompanied by the full band. In the closing hours of the fair the band will render a special program of medleys, embracing all the well known and popular Southern airs. During the playing of these airs "the whole crowd is expected to warble and accompany the band," to use Bandmaster Michaels' own words "Let everybody sing" and make the closing numbers of the musical program one glorious and joyous burst of melody. Sing your best and loudest.

Splendid Show Tonight.

Manager Porter, of the Paris Grand, witnessed the performance of the Coburn Minstrels at Cynthiana, and pronounced it one of the best minstrel shows he ever saw. Manager Coburn has secured a company of artists this season which are not surpassed by any of the so called "big" shows. His singing crew are all "headliners" and his bunch of comedians, headed by the prince of them all, Charley Gano and including Tom Post, Sonny Dinkle and numerous others, don't give you time to quit laughing at one funnyism before they have you going on another one. It only comes once in a season.
Therefore, don't miss it.

Robinson's Circus is Tied Up.

Robinson's circus, scheduled to appear in this city next Monday, will in all probability fail to make this town owing to the fact the show is tied up in Morganfield, Ky. The entire show passed into the hands of a receiver and is tied up in that city until a settlement is made. The liabilities show a schedule of over $15,000 while the assets are not given. It is reported the cause of the assignment was due to a disagreement among the managers.

THEATRICAL.

COBURN'S GREATER MINSTRELS

The next attraction at the Paris Grand on Saturday night will be a welcome return of an old favorite in Paris, Coburn's Greater Minstrels with complete new program, people and equipment will be the attraction tonight.
This company requires little endorsement, from the local press. It is like seeing "home folks" to see Joe Coburn and his men coming up the street for the yearly concert and the renewal of old acquaintances.

The Mason Telegraph says: "It is always pleasant to have Joe Coburn come to town. There is no man at the head of a minstrel company who can boast of more friends than he, and any man who tries as hard as he to give a clean, clever minstrel entertainment, deserves it." This paper cordially endorses the Telegraph's statement, "always a clean, clever performance," each season growing bigger and better. Get your seats today at Mitchell & Blakemore's.

"THE MAN ON THE BOX."

The Columbus, Ohio, papers say the above play pleased their citizens better than "The Wolf" and as Manager Porter, of the Grand, has both shows, our people will know what to expect from "The Man On the Box." The Chillicothe, Ohio, Democrat of last week said Manager Morgan of the Masonic, gave his patrons a rare treat when he booked "The Man On the Box." Local theatre goers pronounce the performance the best ever put on in Chillicothe. The troupe was undoubtedly from the larger circuits and put on a show seldom equaled in the smaller towns. The play itself was a good one and the actors played their parts to perfection. "The Man On the Box" will be the attraction at the Paris Grand Monday night, September 11.
